

Student Consent Form: Permission to Record Presentations

Module name: _____

Module code: _____ Year/Semester: _____

Tutor name(s): _____

Each student will be delivering one or more presentations, either individually or as part of a group. These presentations will be assessed and count towards the grade for this module. Your tutor wishes to record these presentations for the following educational Purposes (tick all applicable):

- ☐ Your own learning – for example reviewing your performance;
- ☐ Moderation of the grade awarded by another tutor;
- ☐ Quality Assurance by an external examiner;
- ☐ Collaborative learning – for example viewing and/or reviewing other students' presentations.

By signing this form (overleaf), each Student (herein referred to as "You") is entering into a separate and legally binding agreement with the University of Kent (herein referred to as "The University"), effective from the date upon which they sign it.

Legal Small Print: Terms of Agreement

In consideration of the mutual rights and obligations set out below:

1. You grant the University the right to make audio and/or video recordings of your assessed presentations that form part of this module and to store them on institutional systems.
2. The copyright ownership in the Presentation Works is governed by the University's IP policy as referred to in the student handbook and available on the University's website¹. You retain all performance rights in your presentation(s). Together the Presentation Works and your performance rights are called the "Works". The University is the copyright owner of all the recordings made.
3. You grant the University and any party authorised by the University, an irrevocable worldwide, non-exclusive right to use, make copies of, publish or otherwise communicate and distribute the Works in the recordings via any medium, including but not limited to the internet for the educational Purposes defined above. The University will use reasonable efforts to ensure that it restricts access to the recordings to only those people who (i) need to view the recording for the educational Purposes defined above or (ii) have technical responsibility for making the recordings available.
4. You waive all rights you may have to prohibit or object to the University using the recordings for the educational Purpose as set out in this Agreement.
5. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the University and you related to the recordings for the Module above. This agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law and the courts in England and Wales will have the exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate on them.

Signed for and on behalf of the University

Tutor(s): _____

Date: _____

¹ See <https://www.kent.ac.uk/enterprise/university-staff/policy-and-procedure.html> (login required)
University of Kent

Convenor: please leave the completed form with your School office.

[illegible]

