

Citizenship Self-Evaluation

6.4.5
f

Read each standard and rate your level of citizenship.
Use a scale of 0 to 3 and add comments to explain your rating.

0 - not at all 1 - beginning 2 - strong 3 - very strong

Standard	My Level	Comments
I have basic knowledge about the history and geography of Canada.
I understand some of the main ideas about how government and democracy works.
I think about important issues and problems facing society today.
I am aware of events in the news.
I show respect for human rights and democratic values with my actions and words.
I deal with conflict and disagreement in positive ways.
I am willing to give up personal wants for the sake of the good of others.
I understand that there is not always a simple answer to problems and I know how to disagree respectfully.
I speak up and stand up for the things I believe in.

Citizenship Self-Evaluation

6.4.5
f

0 - not at all 1 - beginning 2 - strong 3 - very strong

Standard	My Level	Comments
I participate in making decisions about things that affect me.
I feel a sense of a shared identity or community with other Canadians.
I treat all people equally and with respect.
I speak up against unfairness, prejudice, or discrimination.
I take steps to protect, conserve, or restore the environment.
I take care with public and private property.
I feel a sense of shared experience or community with people across the globe.
I am involved in actions that help to make the world a better place.

