

Regener8 Annual Conference 2013
‘Translating Regenerative Therapies to a Global Market’
Thursday 10 October 2013
Royal Armouries Museum, Leeds

DELEGATE FEEDBACK FORM

Your feedback is invaluable as it allows us to further improve our service and future event programmes. We would be very grateful if you could take a moment to complete this form.

Name:		Company:
Email:

	Email	Word of Mouth	Twitter	Website (please state)	Other (please state)
How did you hear about this event?

Please rate the following:

	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Poor	N/A
Overall impression of the event
Pre-event organisation
The length of the event
The pace of the event
The level of the event
The content of the event
Event delivery

How would you rate the suitability of the venue?

	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Poor	N/A
Location
Conference Suite
Exhibition Suite
Catering
Facilities

	Met	Partly Met	Not Met	N/A
How well did the event meet your objectives?

In general, was sufficient time allowed for discussion?

	Yes	No
During each session
During refreshment breaks

PLEASE TURN OVER

In the boxes below, please rate the value of the presentations:

	Excellent	Good	Adequate	Poor	N/A
Opening address – Mark Treherne, UKTI Life Sciences Organisation
Keynote: Commercialising Regenerative Therapies in North America – Michael May, CEO, Centre for Commercialisation of Regenerative Medicine, Canada
The UK Perspective – Cell Therapy Catapult business priorities Matthew Durdy
Keynote: Commercialising Regenerative Therapies in Europe – Tim Allsopp, Head of External Research, Pfizer Neusentis, UK
Regenerative therapies from the SME perspective – Paul Kemp, CEO/CSO, Intercytex
Regenerative therapies from the mid-size company perspective – Michal Slomczykowski, Medical Director, Geistlich Pharma AG, Switzerland
Regenerative therapies from the large company perspective – Jim Faulkner, VP CMC and Supply, Rare Disease Unit, GlaxoSmithKline, UK
Panel Discussion
Keynote: Commercialising Regenerative Therapies in Asia-Pacific – Prof Dietmar W. Hutmacher, Chair Regenerative Medicine, Queensland University of Technology, Australia
Poster display

Which topics/issues would like to see addressed at future events?

	Yes	No
Did you make any new contacts at the event?

	Yes	No
Would you like to hear about future events run by Regener8?

Would you recommend the Regener8 Annual Conference to colleagues and partners? Why is this?

Any other comments

Please return this form to the registration desk or scan and email back to regener8@horizonworks.co.uk or post back to:
Horizonworks Marketing, 6 Charlotte Square, Newcastle upon Tyne NE1 4XF