

Prospective student clinical visit report

The person named below has applied to London South Bank University to undertake a BSc (Hons) / PGDip in Therapeutic Radiography. In order to assess the suitability of the applicant, we advise that they should visit a Radiotherapy Department for a least one day. We would be very grateful for your comments to aid us in selecting suitable candidates. This confidential report should be posted to the address overleaf rather than given back to the applicant.

Section A (to be completed by applicant)

Name:

Date of visit:..... Time spent in department:.....

What types of radiotherapy procedures did you observe?

What types of patients and conditions did you see?

What do you perceive the role of the Therapeutic Radiographer to be?

London South Bank
University

Applicant Name:

Section B. (to be completed by the clinical staff)

Assessment of applicant (confidential)

Even though the visit may have been very short, your impression of the applicant in a clinical situation is greatly valued. Please grade the applicant in the categories shown below;

Punctuality	Poor	Below Average	average	Above average	Outstanding
Appearance
Asked relevant questions
Knowledge of radiotherapy
Communication skills
Self-confidence
Motivation
Attitude to clinical work
Potential as a team worker
Attitude to patients

Any further comments on this applicant

--

Do you feel this applicant is a suitable candidate? Yes / No

Your name:

Position:

Telephone:

Hospital:

Thank you. Please ensure section A and B are attached together and return completed form to:
The Admissions Office, London South Bank University, 103 Borough Rd,
London SE1 0AA