Website Evaluation

Who?

Who is the author and/or publisher? Can you get information about them? Is the author or publisher an expert in the field? If you can't identify someone responsible for the site, choose another site!

What?

Name of site _____

URL: _____

What is the site about? Is it material that will contribute to my research? Is it well written, and free of misspelled words and poor grammar? Can I verify the information in at least two other sources? If not, choose another site!

Sources I compared facts with to confirm this site has good information:

- 1.
- 2.

When?

- When was the site last updated? _____
- Is this date current enough for your topic? Yes No

Why?

Why? Was the site created purely to provide good information, or does the author appear to have a mission that would cause bias (unbalanced opinions)? If the site appears to have a bias, choose another site!
