Data Protection Statement

New College Nottingham will process the personal information provided by you in the application form, and any other personal information provided by you now or in the future, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, to assist us in considering your application for employment and, if you become an employee, for purposes relating to your employment.

For selection purposes, your personal information will be considered by our HR services team and, where appropriate, relevant managers of the College. However, none of the sensitive information, eg. disability or criminal record (if any) included in this application form will be provided to the managers during the selection process (except where necessary to enable us to make arrangements for you to attend interviews). Any appointment will be subject to references and other necessary checks.

Should your application for employment be unsuccessful, your personal information will be held in our HR department for approximately 12 months. After this period your application form and any associated documents will be disposed of in a confidential and responsible manner.

If your application is successful, all of your personal information (including sensitive information) provided on your application form, and any information provided by you now or in the future, will form part of your personal file and will be held on our HR database. Your personal information will be processed to assist in the service and administration of the College's employment practices, eg. payroll, pension, professional development reviews, equality and diversity and other monitoring. Your line manager may also have access to your personal information to assist in line management duties, eg. professional development reviews.

Should you leave the College's employment, your personal information will be retained for a period of seven years in line with HR practice, including for the purposes of providing references and dealing with queries in connection with your employment.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) Order 1975

The post for which you are applying may involve unsupervised access to children and young people. As New College Nottingham meets the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, applicants with unsupervised access and who are offered employment will be subject to a criminal record check from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) before appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings, as well as convictions.

Have you ever been convicted of any criminal offences including cautions, reprimands or warnings?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, please give details of the conviction(s) and the date(s) on a separate sheet and attach it to this form. Failure to disclose criminal offences could lead to either your application being rejected, or if you are appointed, to dismissal if it is subsequently learnt that you have had any criminal convictions. If you are unsure about whether to disclose a conviction, please seek the advice of HR services staff in the College.

The College is committed to adhere to the DBS's code of practice; a copy of this can be found on the College website, as can the College's guidance on the recruitment of ex-offenders.

Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006

I declare that I am not on the Adults Barred List (previously POVA) or Childrens Barred List (previously List 99, Section 142 and POCA), disqualified from working with children, young or vulnerable adults or subject to sanctions imposed by a regulatory body eg. Institute for Learning (IfL) or General Teaching Council (GTC).

As an employer, ncn is committed to ensuring disabled people are treated fairly, are supported at work and able to carry out their role effectively. The Disability Discrimination Act 1995 defines disability as 'a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'. This might include something you may not personally have considered to be a disability, or perhaps you simply did not wish to disclose as you considered it of little adverse impact on your daily life, eg.:

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Epilepsy | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Dyslexia | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mobility difficulties | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Mental health illness |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Arthritis | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Diabetes | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Heart disease | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Hearing/visual impairment |

To help us measure our recruitment policies and practices, we record whether applicants for employment have a disability. We would, therefore, be grateful if you would complete the details below in line with our commitment to promoting this aspect of diversity. Providing information on your disability will in no way have a detrimental impact on your application or the selection process; the shortlisting/ selection panel will not have these details unless you ask that we make an adjustment for your interview.

Within the context of the above explanation, do you consider yourself to have a disability?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, please provide general details:

Do you think you will require the College to make any reasonable adjustments for attendance at interview?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, please provide details of the adjustments required:

References

Please provide details below of referees. Both referees should be relevant and from your current or most recent employer(s). Where it is not possible to obtain an employer's reference you should provide details of a person who is able to comment on your work performance and integrity. You may also use a school/college/university/ voluntary sector referee if more appropriate to your circumstances.

Please note it is the College's policy to only take up references after interview. The College will not normally seek references before interview without your prior permission.
