Summary of Sales Comparison Approach including reconciliation of the above indicators of value. All comps are recent sales of similar 2 unit buildings located in the same market area as the subject. Comps #2 & 3 were adjusted for seller concessions. Lot size is not a factor of value. Comp #1 has not been resided. All comps are similar in age and condition to the subject property. All comps are slightly smaller homes adjusted for size @ $20 per sq.ft. Comp #1 has central air conditioning. All were adjusted for garage. Most weight was given to the mid range of indicated value for the subject property. Although proximity for at least one sale may appear excessive, it was the best available. A location adjustment is not necessary. Consideration was also given to the mid range of the above value indicators for the subject property to arrive at a final indicated value by the sales comparison approach.
Indicated Value by Sales Comparison Approach $ 178,000
INCOME	Total gross monthly rent $ 1,400 X gross rent multiplier (GRM) 126 = $ 176,400 Indicated value by the Income Approach
	Comments on income approach including reconciliation of the GRM All comparables were vacant at the time of their sale, which is typical in this marketplace. (Buildings usually sell as vacant here because they are easier to show.) Rents were estimated using data from the rental analysis. All were used to abstract an estimated gross rent multiplier.

RECONCILIATION	There is sufficient data to develop an indication of value by the sales comparison approach with support from the income approach. Due to the age of the subject's improvement, development of the cost approach was found to be inapplicable to make a credible appraisal for this assignment and was not developed for this report.

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a two- to four-unit property, including a two- to four-unit property in a planned unit development (PUD). A two- to four-unit property located in either a condominium or cooperative project requires the appraiser to inspect the project and complete the project information section of the Individual Condominium Unit Appraisal Report or the Individual Cooperative Interest Appraisal Report and attach it as an addendum to this report.

This appraisal report is subject to the following scope of work, intended use, intended user, definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. Modifications, additions, or deletions to the intended use, intended user, definition of market value, or assumptions and limiting conditions are not permitted. The appraiser may expand the scope of work to include any additional research or analysis necessary based on the complexity of this appraisal assignment. Modifications or deletions to the certifications are also not permitted. However, additional certifications that do not constitute material alterations to this appraisal report, such as those required by law or those related to the appraiser's continuing education or membership in an appraisal organization, are permitted.

SCOPE OF WORK: The scope of work for this appraisal is defined by the complexity of this appraisal assignment and the reporting requirements of this appraisal report form, including the following definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. The appraiser must, at a minimum: (1) perform a complete visual inspection of the interior and exterior areas of the subject property, (2) inspect the neighborhood, (3) inspect each of the comparable sales from at least the street, (4) research, verify, and analyze data from reliable public and/or private sources, and (5) report his or her analysis, opinions, and conclusions in this appraisal report.

INTENDED USE: The intended use of this appraisal report is for the lender/client to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for a mortgage finance transaction.

INTENDED USER: The intended user of this appraisal report is the lender/client.

DEFINITION OF MARKET VALUE: The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby: (1) buyer and seller are typically motivated; (2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and each acting in what he or she considers his or her own best interest; (3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market; (4) payment is made in terms of cash in U. S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and (5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions* granted by anyone associated with the sale.

*Adjustments to the comparables must be made for special or creative financing or sales concessions. No adjustments are necessary for those costs which are normally paid by sellers as a result of tradition or law in a market area; these costs are readily identifiable since the seller pays these costs in virtually all sales transactions. Special or creative financing adjustments can be made to the comparable property by comparisons to financing terms offered by a third party institutional lender that is not already involved in the property or transaction. Any adjustment should not be calculated on a mechanical dollar for dollar cost of the financing or concession but the dollar amount of any adjustment should approximate the market's reaction to the financing or concessions based on the appraiser's judgment.

STATEMENT OF ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITING CONDITIONS: The appraiser's certification in this report is subject to the following assumptions and limiting conditions:

1. The appraiser will not be responsible for matters of a legal nature that affect either the property being appraised or the title to it, except for information that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable and will not render any opinions about the title.
2. The appraiser has provided a sketch in this appraisal report to show the approximate dimensions of the improvements, including each of the units. The sketch is included only to assist the reader in visualizing the property and understanding the appraiser's determination of its size.
3. The appraiser has examined the available flood maps that are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or other data sources) and has noted in this appraisal report whether any portion of the subject site is located in an identified Special Flood Hazard Area. Because the appraiser is not a surveyor, he or she makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding this determination.
4. The appraiser will not give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand, or as otherwise required by law.
5. The appraiser has noted in this appraisal report any adverse conditions (such as needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) observed during the inspection of the subject property or that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in this appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent physical deficiencies or adverse conditions of the property (such as, but not limited to, needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, adverse environmental conditions, etc.) that would make the property less valuable, and has assumed that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, this appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.
6. The appraiser has based his or her appraisal report and valuation conclusion for an appraisal that is subject to satisfactory completion, repairs, or alterations on the assumption that the completion, repairs, or alterations of the subject property will be performed in a professional manner.

• Small Income : Neighborhood Market Conditions

According to the local MLS, housing values have steadily increased ahead of the rate of inflation within the past twelve months. Properties usually sell within 95% of the list price. The demand for housing in the subject neighborhood is consistent with the rest of nearby competing areas, with a typical marketing time of under 90 days. The demand for multi-family dwellings parallel that of single family homes, also under 90 days on the market. Financing is readily available at current market rates. The area usually attracts first time buyers with small down payments, some requiring seller assisted financing through the payment of loan discount points. The financing can be through either the conventional process or government-insured (FHA/VA) loans.

ADDITIONAL CERTIFICATIONS AND OTHER CONDITIONS

This is a Summary Appraisal Report of a complete appraisal on the subject property, as set forth by Standards Rule 2-2 (b) of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

PURPOSE, FUNCTION AND INTENDED USE OF THE APPRAISAL

This report was prepared for and intended for the sole use of: XYZ Financial Inc. (the client and mortgagee, as the intended user) to assist the lender in making a lending decision as the intended use only and is not intended for use by any other party or for any other purpose. The client should obtain the appraiser's permission in writing before disseminating the report to any third party. Any party that attempts to utilize this report without the written permission of the appraiser does so at their own risk. Be advised that this report was prepared for the client and that the appraiser does not intend to influence any third party's decision regarding potential investments.

The current use of the subject property existing as of the date of value is residential, which is the same as the appraiser's opinion of the highest and best use of the real estate being appraised.

Any furnishings or personal property items were not considered in the valuation of the real property.

The State of Illinois Residential Property Disclosure Act (Public Act 88-111) obligates the seller of the subject property to provide a disclosure report before or at the time of written agreement to the prospective buyer of actual or known material defects of the property that would have a substantial adverse effect on value or significantly impair the health or safety of future occupants unless the seller reasonably believes that the condition has been corrected. The appraiser is not obligated to receive a disclosure report from any of the interested parties in this transaction. Therefore, the appraiser will not be responsible for any defects, admitted or concealed on the disclosure report and will assume no liability for any adverse conditions that they may create.

As of the date of this report, the appraiser was not supplied with the legal description of the subject property and the sales contract, in accordance with USPAP requirements. In addition, if a home inspection report was performed on the subject property, it was also not made available to the appraiser.

The federal government has enacted legislation, referred to as "Megan's Law," that encourages states to disclose to the public the whereabouts of convicted child molesters within the community. These individuals may be transient and therefore the situation may change periodically. While the appraiser has no knowledge of any offenders residing nearby the subject property, the scope of this assignment did not include any investigation in this matter. The client is advised to consult with local law enforcement officials about this issue. The appraiser assumes no responsibility for any issues related to Megan's Law.

There are a wide variety of detrimental conditions that can impact property values. These include, but are not limited to: non-market motivations, future temporary disruptions, stigmas, convicted criminals who reside in the neighborhood, neighborhood nuisances, future unannounced surrounding developments, structural and engineering conditions, construction conditions, soils and geotechnical issues, environmental conditions and natural conditions. The appraiser has inspected the subject on a level that is consistent with the typical responsibilities of the appraisal profession; however, the appraiser does not have the expertise of market analysts, soils, structural or environmental engineers, scientists, urban planners and specialists in these various fields. Unless otherwise stated within the report, the appraiser assumes no responsibilities for the impact that the variety of detrimental conditions may cause.

Unless otherwise stated in this report, the existence of hazardous materials, which may or may not be present on the property, was not observed by the appraiser. The appraiser has no knowledge of the existence of such materials on or in the property. The appraiser, however, is not qualified to detect such substances. The presence of substances such as asbestos, urea-formaldehyde foam insulation, mold and other potentially hazardous materials may affect the value of the property. The value estimated is predicated on the assumption that there is no such material on or in the property that would cause a loss in value. No responsibility is assumed for such conditions or for any expertise or engineering knowledge required to discover them. The intended user is urged to retain an expert in this field if desired.

This report is computer generated. An electronic (digital) signature may have also been used in this report. If so, precautions have been made through software encryption to protect the integrity of the appraiser(s) signature, which securely authorizes the utilization of the electronic signature. Electronically affixing a signature to the report carries the same level of authenticity and responsibility as an ink signature on a paper copy report.

This appraisal report may have been electronically transmitted. If so, through software encryption, the appraiser has taken reasonable steps to protect the data integrity of the transmitted report.

SCOPE OF WORK

The scope of work consists of a visit by the appraiser to view the interior and exterior to catalog the salient attributes of the subject property.

The appraiser will investigate appropriate market data for utilization in a sales comparison approach to value, and if appropriate, cost and income capitalization approaches. Appraiser's investigations will include research of public records through the use of commercial sources of data such as printed comparable data services, computerized databases, etc. Search parameters such as dates of sales, leases, locations, sizes, types of properties and distances from the subject will start with relatively narrow constraints and, if necessary, be expanded until the appraiser has either retrieved data sufficient (in the appraiser's opinion) to estimate market value, or until appraiser believes that the appraiser has reasonably exhausted the available pool of data. Researched sales data will be viewed and, if found to be appropriate, efforts will be made to verify the data with persons directly involved in the transactions such as buyers, seller, brokers or agents. At appraiser's discretion some data will be used without personal verification if, in the appraiser's opinion, the data appears to be correct. In addition, appraiser will consider any appropriate listings of properties found through observation during appraiser's data collection process. Appraiser will report only the data deemed to be pertinent to the valuation problem.

The appraiser will investigate and analyse any pertinent easements or restriction, on the fee simple ownership of the subject property. It is the client's responsibility to supply the appraiser with a title report. If a title report is not available, appraiser will rely on a visual observation and identify any readily apparent easements or restrictions.

The appraiser will analyse the data found and reach conclusions regarding the market value, as defined in the report, of the subject property as of the date of value using appropriate valuation approach(es) identified above.

The appraiser will complete the appraisal report in compliance with appraiser's interpretation of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice as promulgated by The Appraisal Foundation and the Code of Professional Ethics and Certification Standard of the Appraisal Institute.

The appraiser will not be responsible for ascertaining the existance of any toxic waste or other contamination present on or off the site. Appraiser will, however, report any indications of toxic waste or contaminants that may affect value if they are readily apparent during the appraiser's investigations. Appraiser cautions the user of the report that the appraiser is not an expert in such matters and that the appraiser may overlook contamination that may be readily apparent to others.

Unless otherwise stated in the appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent conditions of the subject property that would make the subject property more or less valuable, and makes no guarantees or warranties, expressed or implied, regarding the condition of the subject property.

The appraiser will prepare a report which will include photographs (or digital images) of the subject property, descriptions of the subject neighborhood, the site, any improvements on the site, a description of the zoning, a highest and best use analysis, a summary of the most important sales used in the appraiser's valuation, a reconciliation and conclusion, a map illustrating the sales in relationship to the subject property, and other data deemed by the appraiser to be relevant to the report. Pertinent data and analyses not included in the report may be retained in the appraiser's files.

Replacement Reserve Schedule

Adequate replacement reserves must be calculated regardless of whether actual reserves are provided for on the owner's operating statements or are customary in the local market. This represents the total average yearly reserves. Generally, all equipment and components that have a remaining life of more than one year-such as refrigerators, stoves, clothes washers/dryers, trash compactors, furnaces, roofs, and carpeting, etc. - should be expensed on a replacement cost basis.

(Note: Monthly Housing Expense includes principal and interest on the mortgage, hazard insurance premiums, real estate taxes, mortgage insurance premiums, HOA dues, leasehold payments, and subordinate financing payments.)

Underwriter's instructions for 2-4 Family Owner-Occupied Properties

- If Monthly Operating Income is a positive number, enter as "Net Rental Income" in the "Gross Monthly Income" section of Freddie Mac Form 65/Fannie Mae Form 1003. If Monthly Operating Income is a negative number, it must be included as a liability for qualification purposes.
- The borrower's monthly housing expense-to-income ratio must be calculated by comparing the total Monthly Housing Expense for the subject property to the borrower's stable monthly income.

Underwriter's instructions for 1-4 Family Investment Properties

- If Net Cash Flow is a positive number, enter as "Net Rental Income" in the "Gross Monthly Income" section of Freddie Mac Form 65/Fannie Mae Form 1003. If Net Cash Flow is a negative number, it must be included as a liability for qualification purposes.
- The borrower's monthly housing expense-to-income ratio must be calculated by comparing the total monthly housing expense for the borrower's primary residence to the borrower's stable monthly income.

Appraiser's Comments (Including sources for data and rationale for the projections)

Casual labor is to be provided by the owner, who will be either residing in or be in close proximity to the subject property. Minor repairs and decorating also to be performed by the owner. Replacement costs for equipment are at the retail level. Estimated remaining life new for those items are for units of average quality.
