

GaBi Education License Application Form

1. In order to gain access to the GaBi Education software, you are required to complete this short form. PE INTERNATIONAL require this information to keep track of all GaBi users. Your information will remain confidential.
2. After completing this form please read and sign the license agreement found on the following page. Once signed, this is a binding agreement between PE INTERNATIONAL and you.
3. Ask your university to verify your application (this can be a supervising teacher).
4. Fax or email a scanned copy of this form and your student ID (teachers excluded; we'll check your university website) to PE INTERNATIONAL:

Fax: +49 (0) 711 34181725

Email: education@gabi-software.com

Conditions

The GaBi Education license may only be used for education purposes in programs up to and including the level of master, or equivalent, only at Universities and Colleges. PhD students in non-OECD countries may also use GaBi Education. Projects directly funded by industry or public bodies are not permitted with this version.

PE INTERNATIONAL retains the right to reject an application or cancel a license if it is suspected that the license is being, or will be, used inappropriately.

Notes about Network Licenses

Network Licenses are available only to teachers at universities and colleges.

Network licences are designed to be deployed in a computer laboratory where all client computers are connected to the same server.

If you are applying for a network license please indicate how many client computers exist in the computer laboratory.

GaBi Education Licensing Conditions

GaBi (source code, database including extension modules and single data sets, documentation) remains property of PE INTERNATIONAL GmbH. PE INTERNATIONAL delivers GaBi licenses electronically as ordered by the customer. The license grants the right of usage for one installation of GaBi. Further installations using the same license are not permitted.

GaBi Data Licensing Conditions

Data sets may be copied for internal use only. The number of copies is restricted to the number of licenses of the GaBi software system that the licensee owns. Data sets may not be published without written permission of PE INTERNATIONAL. In the same way the transferral of data sets for any purpose without written permission is forbidden. The passing on of single data sets as well as their distribution or disposition is only allowed with the written permission of PE INTERNATIONAL. The right of use is exclusively valid for the licensee. All rights reserved.

Users may not publish individual data sets. Only aggregated or calculated results produced using GaBi data may be published. In any published materials, acknowledgement must be given to GaBi when GaBi data or software is used, for example: "GaBi 4: Software and data base for Life Cycle Engineering, PE INTERNATIONAL GmbH, April 2007."

Licensing Conditions of GaBi Education Licenses

The GaBi Education license may only be used for education purposes in programs up to and including the level of master, or equivalent, only at Universities and Colleges. PhD students in non-OECD countries may also use GaBi Education. Projects directly funded by industry or public bodies are not permitted with this version. In addition, if a student wants to license GaBi software he/she needs to provide confirmation of his/her attendance at a University or College.

The GaBi Education license is provided free of charge. The GaBi Education license is delivered via download. Users accept with the signature on this document to not pass on any access codes outside the organisation applied or the provided GaBi Education software.

The GaBi Education license will expire after 12 months. A renewal of the license can be achieved by reapplying for the GaBi Education license.

Support for the GaBi Education license is given via the GaBi Learning Center which can be accessed via a link from the GaBi Education software or through the GaBi Software website.

Licenses are not transferable and can only be used within the licensee's organisation. If the student completes his/her studies at a University or College he/she is now longer permitted to use the GaBi Software within this license agreement.

Liability and Warranty

The software system GaBi and the corresponding database have been developed with best knowledge and conscience according to the state-of-the-art. PE INTERNATIONAL is unable to assume liability for possible damages as a result of installing and using the software and the database except in case of intent and taking over a guarantee. Statutory or implied warranty is also excluded except in case of taking over a guarantee.

Court of Jurisdiction

If legal, the court of jurisdiction is Esslingen am Neckar, Germany. These terms are subject to the law of the Federal Republic of Germany excluding the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.
