Verdura Golf & Spa Resort, Rocco Forte's first Resort, is located on the south coast of Sicily near the seaside town of Sciacca.

Winning several prestigious awards since its opening in 2009, the luxury Resort offers discreet exclusivity that few places can match.

Surrounded by indigenous lemon and orange groves, Verdura Golf & Spa Resort brings together luxurious and stylish accommodation, world-class golf and spa facilities, friendly children's clubs, and elegant restaurants and bars, each with a different ambience. Above all, it benefits from huge, wide-open spaces in which to move, breathe, relax and enjoy the outstanding service.

Sicily's unique character is the result of thousands of years of history, inscribed in its architecture, landscape and food. The Verdura Golf & Spa Resort captures the essence of the Island, only a short drive away you can visit the picturesque seaside town of Sciacca or the ancient town of Agrigento, with its unforgettable Valley of the Temples, a UNESCO World Heritage site with the remains of eight Greek temples.
