7. Extra information - please use this space to tell us anything else about your special circumstances. Tell us anything that is relevant, even if you think it is not important.

Housing Benefit claimants

If you are awarded Discretionary Housing Payments we will pay them in the same way as we pay your Housing Benefit.

8. Universal credit claimants only (If you do not claim Universal Credit please go straight to section 9)

Please send your Universal Credit award letter and proof of the rent you are charged.
If you do not receive Housing Benefit because you receive the Housing Element of Universal Credit, we need to decide how to pay your Discretionary Housing Payments.

If you are requesting payment to yourself, we will need to see evidence that you are paying your rent. Please forward proof of paying your rent, such as up to date rent statements, a letter from your landlord or other proof confirming you are up to date with your rent.

Please tick if you want:
