

GRADUATE STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Kansas State University College of Veterinary Medicine

The College of Veterinary Medicine welcomes applications from graduate students regarding memorial, scholarship and travel awards that have been established to assist graduate students in their professional advancement.

Name	WID #
------	-------

Mailing Address	City	State	Zip
-----------------	------	-------	-----

Home Phone	Daytime Phone	email address
------------	---------------	---------------

When were you accepted into the Graduate Program? _____
Semester / Year

Graduate Program:

MS	BRITE
MPH	PhD

Area of Study:

Faculty Advisor:

Current cumulative GPA*?

*A current transcript must be included with this scholarship application. Failure to submit a transcript will be considered an incomplete application.

By signing below, I certify that all information provided in this application is accurate.

Applicant's Signature

Date

Indicate which scholarship(s) you wish to be considered for below. Please read each criteria carefully. Only complete applications will be considered.

Dr. Albert L. Burroughs Memorial – the purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance for students in good standing in a graduate degree program in the College of Veterinary Medicine. The funds are to be used for unexpected expenses related to research programs and/or professional development. Criteria: A brief letter written by the student describing his/her intended use of these funds and the date funds will be required needs to be returned with the application form. An endorsement from the student's graduate degree program advisor must also be included.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $10,000.00

Dr. Embert H. Coles, Jr. Memorial – the purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance to a graduate student properly enrolled in a graduate program in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State University who is studying Clinical Pathology. If no graduate student is enrolled in the Clinical Pathology program, a resident may apply in order to enhance his/her professional development in Clinical Pathology.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $1,500.00

The R.C. Dillman Award – the primary purpose of this award will be to honor a DVM degree student or a DVM holding graduate student focused in the discipline of Pathobiology who has demonstrated proficiency in the application of diagnostic pathology in the solution of disease problems of livestock and horses. Criteria: Letter of nomination from a DMP faculty member is required. Award will be presented at the Honors Banquet.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $200.00

Dr. Samuel M. Kruckenberg Scholarship – the purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to veterinary or graduate students properly enrolled in a CVM Graduate program. Primary use shall be to facilitate graduate study in Pathology in the Department of Diagnostic Medicine/Pathobiology. If there is not an acceptable applicant studying Pathology, it may be used for a graduate student in the area of Laboratory Medicine or Toxicology.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $1750.00

Dr. Horst W. and Elizabeth A. Liepold Award – the primary purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance for graduate students in good standing in the college of veterinary medicine who is studying genetic pathology, with preference given to hereditary and congenital pathology in domestic animals. Criteria: A brief letter written by the student describing his/her intended use of these funds should be returned with the application form. An endorsement letter from the student's graduate degree program advisor must also be included.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $500.00

Dr. Harish C. and Ved K. Minocha Scholarship – the purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to graduate students, with an emphasis in virology, enrolled in a graduate program of the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State University.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $500.00

Dr. Marcus D Morris Scholarship – the purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to a graduate student properly enrolled in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State University. First preference shall be given to a student who demonstrates financial need and has an interest in large animal medicine.
AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $1750.00

The Dr. John L. and Patricia L. Noordsy Graduate Student Award for Proficiency in Food Animal Veterinary Medicine – the purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance to students properly enrolled in the graduate programs in the College of Veterinary Medicine. Criteria: The recipient(s) of this award will be a student(s) who is properly enrolled in a graduate program in the KSU CVM who is pursuing a PhD degree. Preference shall be to a DVM (degree can be received from any accredited veterinary college) who has practice experience serving the livestock industry. The student's research shall be focused on a topic relating to meat producing animals. The award will be renewable as long as the recipient meets the eligibility requirements.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: (2) $1,000.00

Dr. Frederick W. Oehme Toxicology Scholarship – the purpose of this scholarship is to provide assistance to graduate students doing research specific to toxicology in the Departments of Diagnostic Medicine/Pathobiology or Anatomy & Physiology. Criteria: Submit an essay about research/work intentions along with the application form. An endorsement letter from the student's graduate degree program advisor must also be included.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: (4) $1,000.00

Marguerite L. Richards Graduate Student Scholarship – the purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to a graduate student properly enrolled in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State University.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $500.00

Dr. Joseph E Smith Clinical Pathology Award – the purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance to a Clinical Pathology graduate student for travel expenses incurred while attending conferences. If no applicant exists with travel expenses, then it may be awarded to a Clinical Pathology graduate student with unexpected expenses.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $1500.00

Dr. G. Roger and Irene J. Spencer Award – the primary purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance for graduate students enrolled in dual degree programs in the College of Veterinary Medicine who can demonstrate clear financial need. Criteria: A brief letter written by the student describing his/her intended use of these funds should be returned with the application form.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $1250.00

Dr. Leo and Gloria Whitehair Award – the primary purpose of this award is to provide financial assistance for graduate students focusing on whole animal research of any kind in the College of Veterinary Medicine. Criteria: A brief letter written by the student describing his/her intended use of the funds and date funds will be required is to be returned with the application form. An endorsement from the student's graduate degree program advisor must also be included.

AVAILABLE AWARD MONEY: $500.00

If you require further information, please contact Barb Turner
at 532-4500 or by email: bturner3@vet.k-state.edu

Submit applications to:
Dr. Frank Blecha
c/o Barb Turner
Graduate Program Director
302 Coles Hall

APPLICATION DEADLINE: December 01

Total Amount of Funding Being Applied For:

Budget Details / Cost Justification

In the space below, please provide details about how you will utilize the award for each scholarship for which you are applying.

Applicant Signature:

Faculty Mentor Signature:

Date: