

60-Day Notice of Termination of Tenancy
(Tenancy of More Than One Year)

To: _____,
(name)

Tenant(s) in possession of the premises at _____,
(street address)

City of _____, County of _____, California.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that effective SIXTY (60) DAYS from the date of service on you of this notice, the periodic tenancy by which you hold possession of the premises is terminated, at which time you are required to vacate and surrender possession of the premises. Your failure to vacate the premises will result in the initiation of legal proceedings against you to recover possession of the premises, damages for every day of occupancy after the expiration date of this notice, and costs of suit, including attorney fees.

State law permits former tenants to reclaim abandoned personal property left at the former address of the tenant, subject to certain conditions. You may or may not be able to reclaim property without incurring additional costs, depending on the cost of storing the property and the length of time before it is reclaimed. In general, these costs will be lower the sooner you contact your former landlord after being notified that the property belonging to you was left behind after you moved out.
