

Student Solo Training Acknowledgement Form

Instructor: _____

Certificate # _____

This is to certify the above listed instructor has completed the ground and flight training required by Leading Edge Aviation prior to authorizing a student pilot to solo.

This training has included, but was not limited to:

- Review of FAR requirements for solo flight
- Endorsements required for solo flight
- LEA Operating and Safety procedures
- Use of LEA Student Pilot Solo Checklist (employee website)
- Required documents to be on the student pilot
- Documents required in the students training folder (Student folder checklist)
- Landings will be to a full stop (CFI required to demonstrate prior to solo)
- Student training within the last 15 days (endorsement)
- Weather minimums for solo students
- Importance of a Stabilized approach and directional control
 - o Stabilized approach – on speed and constant decent rate with only minor corrections due to thermals, wind etc.
 - o Directional control – longitudinal axis of aircraft parallel to and over the extended centerline/centerline on final approach and landing
- Discussion about when a student is ready for solo flight
- Instructor training requirements to authorize solo flights
 - o Initial training prior to authorizing solo flight (after 30 days and 50 hrs. dual given)
 - o Annual recurrent training scheduled by CFI
- Consequences for non-compliance of proper solo authorization as stated in the LEA Instructor Standards and Responsibilities document
- Solo flights will only be allowed after the stage I progress check
- Instructor responsibilities during student solo flight
 - o Supervised Solo – be available on the radio and watch the takeoffs and landings
 - o Solo flight away from field – be available by phone if there should be a problem
- Instructor will be present when the student returns for a debrief after the flight

Chief/Assistant Chief Flight Instructor

Date

I acknowledge that I have received, understand, and will comply with the above listed training items. I further understand that it is my responsibility to schedule and receive the required recurrent training.

Instructor Signature

Date