Veteran Plate Applications:

Veterans must be recognized as a Veteran, by the Royal Canadian Legion, prior to applying for a Veteran plate. You only have to apply once. Veteran application forms are available from your local SGI Motor Licence Issuer, at www.sgi.sk.ca or by calling the Royal Canadian Legion at 306-525-8739.

How Will the Applicant Receive the Personalized Licence Plate(s)?

After the slogan(s) are reviewed, the personalized licence plate(s) will be manufactured and mailed as per the "Mailing Instructions" on the application.

Before the plate(s) can be displayed on a vehicle you must visit a Motor Licence Issuer to register the plate(s). Driving without registering the plate(s) on your vehicle is subject to a fine.

Applications take 10 business days to process, upon receipt by SGI's Head Office in Regina.

Amateur Radio Licence Plates

Holders of these licence plates must also maintain their Department of Communications authority. If this authority is not maintained, the amateur radio licence plates must be returned to the Auto Fund Division.

Cancellation/Recalls

If SGI receives complaints about a slogan it reserves the right to recall the plate. All complaints must be in writing and will be reviewed by an appeal committee.

Slogans inactive for five (5) years will be offered to the general public for reuse.

Refunds/Cancellations

The fee paid for the special order plate(s) will not be refunded after the plate(s) has/have been manufactured, this also applies to gift applications and returned amateur radio plates.

Leased Vehicles

If the vehicle is leased, the Personalized Licence Plate must be registered in the lessee's name. The lessor's name and address will appear in the secondary name and address field of the registration.

Review of Slogans Selected

If your slogan has been issued to another applicant or the selection can be viewed as unacceptable, the applicant will be notified by phone or in writing and your payment returned. No payment is applied to a Credit Card unless a choice has been approved.
