- Be a full-time, regular employee (post-docs, part-time and temporary employees are not eligible for this benefit).
- If both parents are employees of the University at the time of the birth or adoption of the child, both parents are eligible for the leave.

In addition, employees must meet one of the following criteria within the last 12 months:

- Have given birth to a child;
- Be a spouse of a woman who has given birth to a child;
- Be the biological parent, or spouse of biological parent, of the child; or

Finally, eligible employees must use the paid parental leave for the purpose of caring for or bonding with the newborn or newly adopted child.

AMOUNT, TIMEFRAME AND DURATION OF PAID PARENTAL LEAVE

- Eligible employees will receive up to a maximum of four weeks (20 work days) of paid parental leave per birth or adoption of a child. In addition, in no case will an employee receive more than four weeks of paid parental leave in a rolling 12-month period, regardless of whether more than one birth or adoption event occurs within that 12-month time frame.
- The occurrence of a multiple birth or adoption (e.g., the birth of twins or adoption of siblings) does not increase the four-week total amount of paid parental leave granted for that event.
- Each week of paid parental leave is compensated at 100% of the employee's regular, straight-time pay. Paid parental leave will be paid on regularly scheduled pay dates (e.g., weekly or monthly).
- Approved paid parental leave may be taken at any time during the 12-month period immediately following the birth or adoption of a child. Paid parental leave may not be used or extended beyond this 12-month time frame and must be completed by the child's first birthday or the first anniversary of the finalization of the child's adoption.
- Employees must take paid parental leave in one continuous period of leave and must use all paid parental leave during the 12-month time frame indicated above. Paid parental leave cannot be used on an intermittent basis.
- Upon termination of the individual's employment at the University, he or she will not be paid for any unused paid parental leave for which he or she was eligible.
