Restaurants can be very busy during the ski season and it can be very difficult to get reservations. In addition, many of the restaurants are small and cannot take the entire Patski group and only take cash. We have received recommendations for three restaurants where we will try and make reservations for 15-20 people per restaurant. Please let us know if you would like us to make a reservation as part of a smaller group. We will have a sign-up sheet at the first night reception. Please note that many of the restaurants will charge a cancellation fee which we will charge back to you in case of a "no show".
