

WESTERN CULINARY INSTITUTE

bleu

921 SW Morrison Street
Portland, OR 97205
503.294.9770

To whom it may concern:

February 16, 2007

Travis Woodcock has been a student under my supervision in Restaurant Bleu at the Western Culinary Institute. Bleu is a practical class in which the food produced by the students must be prepared in a wholesome manner and be up to Le Cordon Bleu Program standards. During his time I recorded Travis as having great learning speed and a willingness to help in any way he could.

Travis demonstrated enthusiasm and knowledge of many areas in the kitchen. He is not afraid to take on new responsibilities or to jump into a new position. He quickly learned as much as possible in each position of the kitchen to understanding flow and timing. Travis Woodcock will be a valued employee to any organization he is associated with.

Sincerely,

Kelvin E. Gurr
Restaurant Executive Chef
Instructor
Bleu, Restaurant Practicum
Western Culinary Institute
Portland, Oregon