

Arrival Form

To be returned by August 15th, 2018

All students should arrive during move-in dates (2-7 days before lectures begin). The move-in dates for on-campus accommodations are generally two days prior to the commencement of the term. Please consult with the on-campus accommodation office to confirm exact dates.

The Airport Greeting period will run 24 hours a day from August 22nd to September 12th, 2018. New students may make their request to be greeted at the St. John's International Airport by a current student of Memorial by following directions listed on the Internationalization Office website: <http://www.mun.ca/international/students/beforearrival/#AirportGreeting> . Upon your arrival at St. John's International Airport (YYT), students are encouraged to visit the Visitor Information Centre (VIC) outside the arrival's area of the airport. The VIC has a variety of resources about the City of St. John's and more for students to gather. Please make sure to bring along Canadian cash to pay for taxi rides or bus fares from the airport to your accommodations. "

Please note: submission of this form to the International Programs Office (IPO) will not arrange your airport pick-up service.
