

Prerequisite Course Work Form for Communication Disorders Texas State University

General Information

Last Name:

First Name:

DOB or Texas State ID:

Please identify the name of the institution and the semester in which you took each of the following courses. If you did not take a course, enter "Not Taken" in blank instead.

The Department of Communication Disorders understands that some of the courses listed below were not offered or were offered under different titles at various universities. Course equivalents at a large variety of universities can be found by clicking here.

Anatomy and Physiology of the Speech system

--

Aural Rehab

--

Biological Science (3 credit hours) Human or Animal Biology Req

--

Biostatistics

--

Clinical Management of Language Disorders

--

Hearing Science

--

Intro to Audiology

--

Lifespan Human Growth and Development

--

Neuroanatomy for Communication Disorders

--

Phonemics and Phonetics

--

Physical Science (3 credit hours) Chemistry or Physics

--

Remediation of Articulation and Phonological Disorders

--

Social/Behavior Science (3 credit hours)

--

Speech and Language Development

--

Speech Science

--

You must submit this form to The Graduate College at:

<https://tim.txstate.edu/gadocumentupload/>.

The system can accept only one file per requirement. Please combine multiple documents and convert to a PDF file before uploading. For your convenience, instructions are available via the “Combining and Converting Documents to PDF files” link on the left-hand side of the page.