Application Procedures

1. Complete this International Application Form and submit it to the Director of International Student & Scholar Services at the address on the front cover of this form. Please use dark ink and answer every item.
2. Submit appropriate Academic Records:
 - Original or certified copies of all internal secondary school records and certified English translations of those records.
 - Official results of your external examinations. In some countries, the final, external examination results become available too late for an admission decision. If that is your situation, please state that on your Application Form. We may be able to make a decision on admission with preliminary examination results.
 - Students studying at a secondary school in the United States must submit official transcripts and an official SAT result or an official ACT examination result.
 - Students who have completed any post-secondary studies must submit official internal records and any external examination results from those studies. Course syllabi translated into English are also required.
 - One letter of recommendation from a teacher or professor who knows you well and can comment on your academic promise and abilities.
3. English Language Proficiency:
 - Students whose native language is not English must submit evidence of English Language Proficiency. Results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (called the TOEFL), the International English Language Testing System (called the IELTS), the Pearson Test of English (PTE Academic), or documentation of successful completion of an Intensive English Program are required.
4. Evidence of Financial Support:
 - Students planning to study in the United States on a F-1 visa must submit financial evidence documenting sufficient funds for their student careers. Submission of the SUNY Geneseo Sponsorship Form and the materials outlined on that form is required. This documentation may be submitted after the decision on admission to SUNY Geneseo has been made.

Important Words Defined

Internal Records: These are official evaluations of your academic performance from within your own school. Internal Records may be called transcripts, mark sheets, term reports, annual reports, record books, scholar books, etc.

External Records: These are official evaluations of your academic performance by authorities outside your own school. External Records may be the results of examinations by local university authorities or by regional, national, or international testing authorities. In most countries, students take an external examination at the end of Secondary Studies. Here are some examples of external records at the end of Secondary Studies from different countries: International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE), HKDSE, EACE, KCE, SPM, Maturity Certificate, SMU (SMA), Bachillerato, National College Entrance Examination, WASC, ISC, and State Board Exam results.

Secondary Studies: The level of education that you complete usually after eleven, or twelve years of formal study, depending upon your country's education system. In most countries, the final three, four, or five of those years are Secondary Studies.

Post-Secondary Studies: Any formal academic study that is more advanced in content than the Secondary Studies. Typically, post-secondary studies begin with regular university enrollment. They may also include the results of Advanced Level classes with official A-Level results.

Official Records: An official record or document must have a fresh ink printing, signature, stamp, or a raised seal to certify that its content is true. A photocopy or a fax of a record or document without a fresh ink signature is not considered official.
