Section 4 B

Declaration

"I hereby apply for Working Holiday Authorisation in advance of travelling to Ireland. The information I have given is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge. I also declare that the photograph submitted with this form is a true likeness of me, the applicant. I confirm that if, before the application is decided, there is a material change in my circumstances or new information relevant to this application becomes available, I will inform the Visa Division, INIS, Dublin.

I understand that additional information may be required before my application can be processed. I understand that failure to provide such data, if requested to do so by the Visa Division, INIS, Dublin, may result in the refusal of my application.

I understand that any false or misleading information, or false supporting documentation, may result in the refusal of my application without the right of appeal, and that this may result in me being prevented from making further applications to INIS for a period of up to five years.

I understand that, if it is discovered on a later date, I have submitted false, fraudulent or misleading information or supporting documentation, my permission will be reviewed and may be revoked.

I acknowledge that the application form and supporting documentation, or copies thereof, may be conveyed to the Irish deciding authority by reasonable means as considered appropriate by the receiving office, including commercial courier (in sealed package) or other postal or electronic means.

I understand that I do not have any entitlement to support from the State.

I agree that I have sufficient funds , or access to such funds, to support myself during a substantial part of my visit.

2020 Working Holiday Authorisations are valid for presentation at an Irish port of entry during the calendar year of 2020 only.

Holders of Working Holiday Authorisations intending to remain in Ireland for a period in excess of 90 days must register with the Garda National Immigration Bureau and will be issued with an Irish Residence Permit (IRP card) on payment of the appropriate fee.

Working Holiday Authorisations are issued on an individual basis. Holders of Working Holiday Authorisations shall not seek to be accompanied or joined by a spouse or dependents unless they are also in possession of a working holiday authorisation.

Permission granted to those entering Ireland on the basis of a Working Holiday Authorisation shall be valid for a maximum of twelve (12) months from the date of initial entry into Ireland. Extensions to the period of validity shall not be granted. Participants must leave Ireland on the expiration of permission which cannot be extended, either under the authorisation itself or through attempting to convert it to a different form of immigration status.

Persons who are already in Ireland with an immigration status other than that based on a Working Holiday Authorisation may not convert to permission based on a Working Holiday Authorisation without leaving Ireland and re-entering on the basis of the valid Working Holiday Authorisation.

I have answered all the questions above and the particulars above are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I have read and understand the Department of Justice and Equality’s data protection policies regarding my personal information”.
