

The seal of Horry County, South Carolina, is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a white background, depicting a large, dark, leafy tree. Above the shield, the words "HORRY COUNTY" are written in a semi-circle. Below the shield, a banner reads "THE INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC" and "1891". At the bottom of the seal, the letters "S. C." are visible.

EMPLOYEE COMPLAINT FORM

---

Date _____