

Photography Consent Form

Photovoice is a method for collecting qualitative data using photography to address a specific research topic. This pilot photovoice project focuses on identifying _____ to raise awareness and promote discussions surrounding the topic.

I, _____, understand that photos of me and/or my likeness may be used in a public setting and displayed indefinitely. I give permission to the photographer and Columbia College to use my likeness for research, display, and promotional purposes surrounding this pilot project.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Printed Name: _____