I have provided accurate and truthful information. I have not withheld, concealed, or misrepresented any material information presented to the Liberty School District on which it may rely in determining whether my student(s) may attend the Liberty School District. I am aware the district may request more supporting information or investigate to determine where my child/children reside(s).

I understand that persons making a false declaration of residency or presenting false materials to meet school residency requirements may be subject to criminal prosecution. If false information or materials have been presented to meet Liberty School District residency requirements, the above child/children will be withdrawn from the Liberty School District, and I may be obligated to pay any tuition monies then due.
