To the Admissions Committee:

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for [Applicant's Name], who has been a dedicated and outstanding intern at [Medical Institution]. I have closely supervised [Applicant's Name] during their time here and have been deeply impressed by their commitment, skill, and potential as a future physician.

[Applicant's Name] has displayed exceptional clinical skills and knowledge during their internship. They have a natural ability to interact with patients, providing compassionate and comprehensive care. In particular, [he/she/they] handled cases in [specific department or specialty] with remarkable proficiency, showing both technical skill and an empathetic approach to patient care.

One notable instance was when [Applicant's Name] [specific example of a situation where the applicant excelled, e.g., managed a challenging patient case, demonstrated quick thinking in an emergency]. This experience highlighted their ability to remain calm under pressure and make sound medical decisions swiftly.

In addition to their clinical acumen, [Applicant's Name] has been actively involved in medical research. Their contribution to [specific research project] was invaluable, and they demonstrated a thorough understanding of the research process. Their findings have been recognized in [specific journal/conference], showcasing their ability to contribute to the medical field beyond clinical practice.

[Applicant's Name] is also a team player, often going above and beyond to assist colleagues and contribute to a positive working environment. Their willingness to learn and their proactive attitude have been an asset to our team.

I am confident that [Applicant's Name] will excel in medical school and continue to develop into a skilled and compassionate physician. Their dedication, intelligence, and interpersonal skills make them an ideal candidate for your program.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information.

Sincerely,

[Doctor's Name]
